Turnabout

Turnabout was, as always, a night to remember. Every boy there was a "Lucky Man." Every girl there was sure to be with the guy of her choice. A night full of memorable events. From first asking a boy to buying the tickets working your way up to reserving a place for dinner to the big night itself. I'm sure as we look back, the evening went all too fast for all the girls and their "Lucky Man."

Godspell

One of the things I remember most is the strong sense of unity we all felt. The cast, directors, and technicians worked as a whole to build the show out of the very sketchy outline provided in the script. We were doubly challenged by the fact that we were in the new theatre, which was completed only a week before opening night. The performances turned out to be a loving exchange, filled with laughter and even a few tears. The response between the cast and audience was electrifying.

Variety Show

Once again, Red Arrow and Mrs. Morgan put on a spectacular show with Tosa East students as the stars. The theme, "Make 'Em Laugh," was hilariously carried out by such acts as "Guitarzan" and "Charles Coffins." There was a serious side to the program, however. Many people displayed their abilities in singing, dancing, and piano and guitar playing. All in all, the evening provided the audience with an opportunity to see sometimes a hidden talented side of their fellow students.

Prom

The Junior Prom is always an experience worth remembering. Ours was no exception. The theme, "We May Never Pass This Way Again," reflects one of the many special events that students have the opportunity to participate in. Through the help of our Prom Director, Miss Lucas, and the Junior class, these memories were made possible.
